Standard can offer a generous trade-in value to your existing machinery - that old finisher may not be quite as dead an asset as you thought!

Have your machinery painted in the colours to match your décor.
And stove dried for added durability.

Peace of mind. We build these machines to your specifications in our factory in Kettering. We carry the full range of parts for our machines here, not on the continent somewhere. Our engineers are fully skilled and knowledgeable about the machinery range.

You can come and see your machine being built or we can send you photographs of the progress.

Only Standard build new, British machinery for the British market.
